

Dear Friends,

As we head into a new year, I want to share some thoughts I recently read from a flower farm in Michigan, Three Acre Farm. The owner, Lori, wrote the article about her business, but she also brings a Christian perspective. What she has learned can also apply to the ministries we share:

“Sustainable growth is slow and steady.

Often unremarkable. Always with setbacks.

We live in a culture that likes to glorify “overnight success”, “explosive growth”, “going viral.”

But that's not how growth works. I remember hearing this truth a couple of years ago:

“Overnight success takes 10 years.”

At the time, I was just starting my business and I found this truth to be equal parts discouraging... and reassuring.

When you see someone who has “achieved success”, whatever your definition of success is, ... it's vital to understand that they were:

Willing to put in thousands of hours of work

Willing to be a beginner and be terrible at first

Willing to fail, over and over and over

Willing to use all their experiences, good and bad, to shape their future

Willing to stop caring about what other people think of them

Willing to adjust, change, and pivot

Willing to be curious and humble, instead of rigid and judgmental...

Comparison is never useful. It always tears you down.

When you feel frustrated that things are not fast enough, successful enough, good enough...

Stop. Challenge that thought. What if you're exactly where you need to be?

What if everything you're going through right now is sowing seeds for the future?

Some seeds germinate faster than expected.

Some seeds germinate at the predicted time.

Some seeds take weeks, months and even years to germinate...

Your job is not to judge the seeds, but to simply keep tending them.

Slowly. Gently. Steadily. Tenderly.

This is how sustainable growth works.

Upward and onward, friend.”

May God give us wisdom and strength in the New Year!

United Women in Faith met on December 14th with a potluck supper at 5:00 p.m. With an invited guest, we had 9 in attendance. Our business meeting followed. We agreed to get 3 gift cards at River Country Coop for our helpers this year, instead of fruit/goodie baskets as we have done in years past. They will be for $25 each. Our Mission Giving designated: Prairie Farm/Ridgeland Food Pantry, $325; WWIB Radio Station, $50; Grammen Foundation (formerly Freedom from Hunger), $50; and 3 months of Apportionments-$1029. We then enjoyed listening to some readings & recitations. We each had brought a wrapped white elephant gift and Robin led us in an exciting exchange. Our next meeting will be March 7th, 2024 for our Call to Prayer and Self-Denial program to be led by Roxanne White.

Administrative Council meets on January 9th at 5:30 p.m.

Christmas Blessings from Bishop Jung

The birth of Jesus
We are reborn deep within our hearts and spirits.
Come to us with light
Come to us with life
Come to this shabby place with peace
Come to the eternal now, right within us...

The coming of Jesus
Let there be hope for the world,
Let even a small smile express happiness.
To a lonely person, come as a friend,
Come to Bethlehem
Yes come....
Come to the heart of the broken world.

The coming of the Savior
It brings joy to us,
so everyone rejoices together.
The Savior has come,
let us sing and let the world sing
Christ light,
Dawning within us the divine presence.

May we bless one another today
It's not a slow heart.
With a bright face, bless each other
Let me bless my friends who have gone down different paths,
With a loving heart, we wish them to bless.
May we all be blessed because of Jesus

Active Discipleship January 2024

A University chaplain had an interesting conversation with a student that came to see him one day. He writes:

“I was wondering what I ought to do about the exam,” she said, “then I looked at this bracelet” (here she gestured to the “What Would Jesus Do?” bracelet on her wrist), “and I said to myself, ‘I am going to just say a little prayer, relax, and look after myself.’”

And I thought to myself, “I can think of at least a couple of other things Jesus might tell you to do — like get over to the library and get busy studying for this exam.”

Devoid of specific content, insubstantial, vague “spirituality” may be our contemporary Christian undoing. We have rendered Jesus into someone so vague, amorphous, and flimsy that he makes little claim upon us. Jesus has become a fashion accessory, something tied to our wrist, a comfort, never a challenge. What would Jesus do? Whatever we do, it appears.

This short story reminds me of what a challenge Christian Discipleship. It is easy for us to become a member of a church, attend several times a year, give a little money, and to sit back and relax because we all know that God’s grace is free. And yet, we forget that while God’s love is given to us freely, if we allow it to grab ahold of us, it changes our lives. Our priorities are no longer our own, but God’s. We pray that “God’s will be done,” not only in a general sense, but particularly in and through our own lives. This means becoming an active part of our community of faith. Giving our energy to worship, instead of being a passive observer. Actively loving and serving our neighbor, instead of just praying for them and hoping for a miracle. Spending time with God in prayer and study. Letting generosity be the top priority in our finances, not just giving what’s left over after we’ve gotten ours.

Christian Discipleship is a difficult enterprise. Thank God we have grace to support us and strengthen us. And thank God we have a community of faith to help us along and to hold us accountable.
