Dear Friends,

Once again, the holiday season is upon us, and with it, the exhortations to remember the true meaning of Christmas. We observe Advent to help us stay on track: to remember the Hebrews' longing for a Savior and to recall that we still await Jesus' return.

And as we wait for Jesus' second coming, we rejoice that Christians have nothing to fear about the end of time. Even though we are not immune to the pain of this world, we are comforted. We hold on to hope in the midst of chaos. Friends, let us demonstrate our faith and faithfulness by acting on the things God is calling us to do. As we look forward to the celebration of Christmas, we also anticipate that day when Jesus will reign and we will experience a new heaven and a new earth.

Peace on earth, and goodwill to all!

Pastor Vicky

Keep Praying! December 2025

Dear Friends

I encourage you to continue to pray daily for all our churches. Find a specific time that works for you! My Breakthrough Prayer alarm reminds me every day at 5:15 pm. God is always up to something new! We need discernment to see where God is leading us, and we also need grace as we seek to follow his lead. Remember to listen as you pray. Let me know where you think God is leading us, and how these prayers are helping you!

~Pastor Vicky

Isaiah 43:19

I am about to do a new thing; now it springs forth; do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert.

Loving God, open our eyes to the new things you're doing among us, and help us to join you in your work. Break through into our lives and our churches with new possibilities. In the hope Jesus offers us, Amen.

Christmas is doing something a little extra for someone.

And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed. And all went to be taxed every one into his own city. And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem; because he was of the house and lineage of David. To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child.

And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered. And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in the manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them; and they were sore afraid. And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you; ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger. And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us. And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger. And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child. And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds. But Mary kept all these things and pondered them in her heart. And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.
